

DETROIT AUDUBON

Fostering appreciation and conservation of birds and the environment we share

Join Detroit Audubon!

Become a member of the Detroit Audubon Society and help us continue our vital role in fostering the appreciation and conservation of birds and the environment we share. Membership is only $30/year and benefits include:

- Annual subscription to our quarterly newsletter, The Flyway (2 printed, 2 electronic)
- 10% Nature Bookstore discounts
- Additional discounts on Detroit Audubon special events and field trips
- Invitations to meetings, programs, activities, and special events
- Opportunities to volunteer and make a difference
- Voting on matters put to vote of membership (i.e. Board elections)
- Access to Detroit Audubon's in-office library

Local membership dues fund our critical local chapter work, like teaching at Belle Isle Nature Camp, offering environmental education programs to Detroit Public Schools, monitoring the Black Tern population at St. Clair Flats, and organizing and training citizen scientists to participate in local Christmas Bird Counts, Waterfowl Counts, and Grassland Bird Counts.
